A BEAUTIFUL BOOKLET ENTITLED "A Photographic Study of Pebble Beach Golf Links" has been published by The Carmel Work Center, and is now on sale for $2.00. It is well worth the price to anyone interested in golf and beautiful photographs. Shown (ABOVE) are illustrations from one of the pages telling the story of the fourteenth hole. The photographs are all by Julian P. Graham, well known to SPECTATOR readers for his covers on the front of this publication. W. T. Lee and Company, who lithograph the SPECTATOR, have also lithographed this booklet.

From the foreword to the booklet we quote: "Not the least source of enjoyment of a game of golf is to sit quietly and replay the course in retrospect. When this pleasure is shared with a friend, accompanied by good photographs to refresh memories, the event is complete. This book has been compiled with such an objective in mind, and we believe that we have succeeded in capturing the spirit of this lovely golf course for you."

With so many golf enthusiasts in town for the Crosby Tournament, it is expected that this latest effort of the Carmel Work Center to encourage the production of the works of local artists and artisans will get off to a flying start.

"Mr. Music"

January is certainly Bing Crosby's month and Wednesday night, on the Chesterfield Crosby adio program, his brother Bob and friend Bob Hope helped him celebrate it. Recently named "Mr. Music," Bing, sometime Pebble Beach resident, is now celebrating his twentieth year in show business--the big time that is, and the tenth year of his $10,000 National Pro-Amateur Golf Championship matches.

Starting out as a small get-together for Bing and his friends at Rancho Santa Fe ten years ago, the tournament moved to the great golf courses of Cypress Point, Monterey Peninsula Country Club, and Pebble Beach five years ago.

From a small beginning of a few golfers on one course, it has grown to 150 of the world's greatest professionals and most colorful amateurs playing over three of the world's most fabulous links. Great names of Hollywood, baseball, boxing and football, will be Bing's guests for the occasion.

Grantland Rice called it "The Greatest Thing in Golf" and fifteen thousand people last year swelled the gross gate to over $30,000, before taxes. Bing pays all the bills including the $10,000 pro prizes, with proceeds entirely for charity, in this case youth activities of the Community Chest, especially youth centers on the Monterey Peninsula.

The 150 golfers tee off today, Friday, at exclusive Cypress Point Club. Saturday they move to the Country Club, and the third and final 18 holes of the 54 hole event are played Sunday, January 14, at Pebble Beach.

Prizes include $7,000 for the top 15 pro scores, and $3,000 for the "best ball" scores of the pro-amateur combinations. The amateurs receive prizes that have ranged from radios to refrigerators.

Mangrum just won the Los Angeles Open. (LOWER) Francis Brown of Honolulu and Carmel Valley, one of the amateurs who will participate in the tournament.

MAIL DELIVERY INCREASED FOR UPPER CARMEL VALLEY

Beginning Monday, daily mail service (except Sundays) will be given residents of upper Carmel Valley, in the Jamesburg area east of Robles Del Rio, it has been announced by Sam Brandt, Postmaster at Robles.

At the same time, Brandt said that all residents of the area served by his office would have a daily dispatch of outgoing mail at 5 P.M. (except Sundays). This is an increase over the three day dispatch at 5 P.M.

MAYOR ENDORSES MARCH OF DIMES

Allen Knight, Mayor of Carmel, issued a proclamation today calling on all residents of this city to assure continuation of the fight against infantile paralysis by giving unstinted support to the 1951 March of Dimes.

The proclamation disclosed that bills for polio patient care alone during 1949-50 took some $47,000,000 in March of Dimes funds, again exhausting the epidemic aid fund of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

BICYCLISTS MUST BE LICENSED TOO

While their seniors are in the process of getting automobile licenses, Carmel's junior set have been reminded by Police Chief Clyde Klaumann that they too must have tags for their bikes. Licenses may be secured at the Police Department on Seventh and Mission.

AT PINE INN

Among the prominent guests in town for the Crosby Tournament are the following registered at Pine Inn: Frank Borzage, Bill Frawley, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Weissmuller, Bob Crosby, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Carpenter, Murdo McKenzie, Bill Morrow, Harold Sampson, Ernie Nevers, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Demaret, Jimmy Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fairbanks, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Kelly, Bob Vaillancourt and Jim Ferrier.

GATE TOLL REFUNDED WITH DINNER

This is Cliff Knee. In inspecting "Super Inch," Cliff walked 1500 miles—three times its California length. Plans for this largest diameter pipeline ever built for transmission of natural gas began six years ago, and the new line has cost 63 million dollars to build! You have to plan ahead, and raise large sums of money when you have more than a million customers to supply with gas 365 days a year.

"Super Inch" has gone to work

...and it's good news for you and your neighbors!

Here's Dr. Woodrow Coale, Stockton dentist and former mayor of the city. Dr. Coale, along with nearly 170,000 others, has invested part of his savings in P. G. and E. stock. Through this investment such huge projects as "Super Inch" may be financed so that plentiful, low-cost fuel is assured in growing Northern and Central California.

Of course, completion of "Super Inch" Pipeline is big news to everybody—twice as many people in California use twice as much gas today as was necessary ten years ago—what gas is left in the State no longer can meet the ever increasing requirements of growing California.

To assure our customers a continuing ample supply, we went nearly halfway across the continent to Texas to secure a supply of natural gas that just started flowing through "Super Inch." Adequate gas and electricity enable communities and industries to grow, mean new jobs, larger payrolls. And P. G. and E. gas rates, as well as electric rates, are among the lowest in the nation.

Now meet a few of the folks who helped build and finance "Super Inch" and some folks who use the gas it brings from Texas...

The Neeld Family, newly arrived from Maryland, in the patio of their home in San Jose. It is to supply the Neelds and over 500,000 other new families living in P. G. and E. territory that we built "Super Inch." The Neelds were happy to find that they pay only ⅓ as much as the same amount of gas cost them in Maryland.

AWVS HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING

The American Women's Voluntary Services held its annual meeting on Friday, January 5, at the Armed Services YMCA. The new members of the board of directors are Mesdames Walter Adams, Howell Armor, Edwin Atherton, Gordon Bagley, Sam Bonsall, Gilbert Campbell, Leonard Carey; Miss Charlotte Collins; Mesdames John Cox, Florence Dibble, Jessie Crane, Leslie Emery, Carol Hazeltine, Wesley Heard, Cyrus Johnson, Josephine Johnson, Frank Lacausa; Miss Ollie Lind; Mesdames Louis Lengfeld, Rodney Mason, Edward P. McMurtry, William McNamee, Howard Murphy, Ray Page, Hazel Reid, Frank Ringland, W. D. Sayers; Miss Alice Seckels; Mesdames Phillip Schneeberger, Dar D. Stofer, Lloyd Thayer, Clyde Thompson and Elizabeth Whiting.

Mrs. Bonsall, chairman of the nominating committee, presented the slate of officers for the coming year, all of whom were unanimously elected, as follows: Mrs. Richard L. Bower, chairman; Mrs. Wesley Heard, recording secretary; Mrs. Cyrus Johnson, corresponding secretary, Mrs. Josephine Johnson, treasurer; Mrs. Howell Armor, first vice-chairman; Miss Alice Seckels, second vice-chairman, and Mrs. Roy Page, third vice-chairman.

Mrs. Frank G. Ringland, the retiring chairman, expressed her appreciation for all the members who had worked so hard, and expressed her regret that, owing to the stress of her own personal affairs, she would not be able to accept the chairmanship another year.

COLLEGE PLACEMENT EXAMINATION FOR ADULTS

Adults who wish to determine whether they have the equivalent of a high school education, and those who wish to enroll this spring semester in college English, may now take the necessary examinations.

There is still time to prepare for the University of California English entrance examination (Subject A) to be held on Saturday, January 20, starting at 1 p.m. The examination has four parts: sentence structure, word meaning, punctuation, and a 500-word composition. The adult should bring pen and ink to Room 10 of the Liberal Arts Building on the Monterey Peninsula College campus.

The examinations for high school placement, which can reduce the amount of work needed for the high school diploma, are a series of five tests, requiring from one and a half hours to two hours each. They will be given one each evening, Monday through Friday, January 15 to 19, in Room 3 of the Business Education building on the College campus, starting at 7:30 P.M. There will be a fee of $5 for taking these tests.

These tests, known as the General Education Examinations, have been used by all branches of the Armed Forces to prove a level of education equal to that of high school diploma.

Those taking such examinations cannot review or study for them as they do not test specific subject matter. Knowledge and skills gained in ways other than by schooling are needed. A person who has had work experience, who has traveled, read and attended cultural programs, or who has undertaken self-directed study, will find the tests are not difficult. They are designed to determine whether the candidate can comprehend exactly, evaluate critically, think clearly, detect errors, inconsistencies and bias, and whether with these skills he had sufficient general knowledge and informational background to arrive at reliable judgments, also whether he had a general mathematical problem-solving ability of a very practical sort, and the ability to express himself effectively and correctly.

BETTS-SCOVILLE ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mrs. Edward Betts, Jr., has announced the engagement of her daughter, Barbara Canby Betts, to Jefferson R. Scoville. "Bebe" is the daughter of Edward Betts, Jr., of Manhasset, Long Island, and Wilmington, Delaware, and sister of Pe of Mrs. Henry P. Garin, Jr., of Pebble Beach, and recently has studied at the New York Fashion Academy in New York City.

"Jeff" is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Scoville Jr. of Pebble Beach, formerly of Pasadena, California. He is the brother of Shelagh Scoville, also of Pebble Beach, and James W. Scovilie of Topeka, Kansas. Having attended the Black-Foxe Military Institute in Los Angeles, he then served two and a half years in the Army Air Forces, after which he enrolled in the University of Santa Clara, where he is now a senior.

The wedding is planned for June of this year, after the groom-to-be's graduation.

ZEIKEL TO APPEAR IN CONCERT SUNDAY

Violinist David Zeikel, who is to appear in Sunset Auditorium Sunday evening, January 14, is of the opinion that musical programs should be prepared the same way in which a hostess plans a dinner party.

Catering to the occasional as well as the regular concert-goer, Zeikel includes all schools, periods and types of compositions, leaning towards the unhackneyed. There is an entree-type, a main dish--a salad--a dessert-type, in other words, music for every palate and ear.

Zeikel first appeared in New York City at the age of six after having studied the violin for one year. His performance gained for him a first prize which included a silver pencil and a scholarship to the conservatory. He delayed entrance into the conservatory for two years, during which time he was under the watchful eye of Ovide Musin. After graduation Zeikel served his musical apprenticeship in New York theatres and became concertmaster of the RKO Palace. The same post was held by him on the NBC (RKO Theatre of the Air) broadcast from Radio City twice weekly for two years.

Following his formal debut in Carnegie Hall, he appeared as soloist with the Boston Symphony, and embarked on coast-to-coast appearances. Incidentally, this Sunday evening's performance will mark the thousandth time that Zeikel will have played the Bach "Chaconne" publicly.

Tickets are available at all music stores.

Please say you saw it in the SPECTATOR... That will help me have a better column. --Betsy Abbott.

A NOVEL SERVICE--a decorating studio that will service any home in any city in California--is now located in Carmel. It is operated by Mr. Russell H. Macdonald and Robert C. Olund who have a studio, known as RUSSEK OF CALIFORNIA, in the Golden Bough Court. Russek of California makes it possible for you to select draperies for any location. RUSSEK services will bring samples to you in your home where a trial can be made of the blend of the fabrics with others already in your home. In addition to drapery and window treatment problems, balanced room arrangements, and coordinated color schemes, RUSSEK also does hand decorating, refinishing and upholstering of furniture and makes custom-made bedspreads and upholstered headboards. Punched embroidery pictures are created to fit in with the decor of your room. Designs from china or any other objects you like can be repeated through punch embroidery and put on a valance or on any piece of furniture where this repetition of motif is desired.

Hawaiian monkey pod functional tables are on display in the shop. RUSSEK's are expert in designing custom-built lamps--all very original and appealing in design. Lamps can be made up from any object or cherished antique you might wish to use. They can be designed to hold the smallest demi-tasse or may be fashioned from large figurines, or from any choice objet d'art. Separate shades are also made to order.

RUSSEK has in the studio a complete line of fabrics. Anything that you could possibly want for any type of room RUSSEK can supply. I saw a wonderful old print that Mr. Macdonald told me carried out the theme of some draperies that had been hanging in a room for some 20 years. Needless to say, his customer must have been very pleased with such a successful match. There are appropriate fabrics for living rooms, bedrooms, dens, dining rooms, kitchens and bathrooms. Mr. Macdonald and Mr. Olund cordially invite you to come in and discuss your decoration problems with them.

A GENUINE JANUARY CLEARANCE SALE is going on at HARRIET DUNCAN'S. There is no come-on about this sale, for the wonderful skirts--in jerseys, plaids, velveteen, gabardine, challi, corduroy and wool--start at $5.00. Blouses in jersey and challi start at $5.00. Here is your chance to mix, match and mate the two pieces in such a way as to give you the combination you have always wanted. There are jackets in corduroy, velveteen and flannel--and a few odd size coats. The prices have been slashed... and this is nothing to sneeze at during these times when the future is so indefinite. So... it would be an excellent idea to go to HARRIET DUNCAN'S, on Sixth and Lincoln in Carmel, and avail yourself of the good taste in merchandise available there.

COATS--fur trimmed, tweed, fleece, broadcloth, gabardine--full length or shorties--are on sale at greatly reduced prices at the COLLEGIATE DRESS SHOP. Be smart... choose a coat now before the selection becomes limited, which is bound to happen. Among the coats are several fur capes (one-quarter off in price) that would be a wise purchase right now. There will be plenty of time to wear these sophisticated little capes, and they would be perfect for city wear under your town suit. In addition to coats, a wide variety of dresses have also been reduced in price. I won't try to describe any of them... All I can say is that anything your heart might desire in a dress is on a rack, waiting for you to select it. Cocktail, casual, wool and prints--all perfect for this post-holiday season--are on hand at the COLLEGIATE SHOP, at 489 Alvarado, in Monterey.

SPRING SHORTIES--those wonderful garments that took so long to come into vogue and now are a "must" in everyone's wardrobe--are available in many colors and styles in the CINDERELLA SHOP. A brand new selection has just arrived. Hop sacking or homespun cloth has been most effectively used. The colors are red, beige, the palest shell pink and grey. One style has a mandarin coat treatment on the sides; another has push-up sleeves. These shorties are non-crushable and are perfect over dark clothes now, and later on will be ideal over slacks and even over summer formals.

A lightweight navy blue flannel shortie has a pure dye red silk lining. The cuffs are also lined, and the flash of red adds to the interest.

In addition, there are beautiful soft beige cashmeres as smartly designed as can be imagined. A Digolwood tweed imported from England has a tafetta ascot, and worn over a slim skirt would add that dash and savoir faire you would want for your elegant Easter outfit. With the variety of styles, fabrics and colors it would be a very simple thing to select your shortie from THE CINDERELLA SHOP, next to the Bank of Carmel, on Ocean Avenue, and be "in the swim" from Lady Fashion's viewpoint.

TEXANS SOLD ON PENINSULA

The weatherman brought out his most dazzling climate last Saturday when two visitors from Dallas toured the Peninsula.

After a flight from San Francisco in their private plane, Herbert E. Nichols and John E. Cunningham, chairman of the board and president, respectively, of Southwest Public Service, were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Tescher at Del Monte Lodge. The two Texans declared themselves smitten by our "circle of enchantment," and expressed a wish to come back and stay longer next time.

CARMEL WOMAN'S CLUB HEAR KENT ROBERTS

In the absence of Mrs. F. E. Vaughan, president, Mrs. Barbara Murphy, first vice president and program chairman, presided at the meeting of the Carmel Woman's Club, Monday, January 8. It was announced that at a meeting of the board of directors, it had been unanimously agreed to open the club to the Carmel Chapter of the American Red Cross for a course of lectures, which would include instruction for volunteer staff aides and first aid.

This nine-hour course begins Tuesday, January 16 at 9 A.M., meets again on Thursday, January 18, and on the following Tuesday, January 23. First aid classes will be held Wednesdays and Fridays, 3 to 5:30 P.M., beginning January 24. Both courses are open to the public, and are basically important as part of the Civilian Defense program urged in California by Governor Warren.

For the benefit of the Carmel Youth Center, the Woman's Club has planned a Fashion Show and Dessert Card Party for Friday, February 2, at 1 P.M. Mrs. James Burgess, chairman, announced that the exhibitors will be Lynn's Ltd. of Carmel and The Yarn Tree. Tickets will be one dollar.

Kent Roberts, guest speaker, noted war correspondent and world traveler, discussed some highly controversial questions under his topic, "The World is Looking at us."

"We are facing greater problems than has any age," said Roberts. "The potentialities of this include interplanetary travel. We may take a trip to the moon--but how to get back is the problem." He referred to President Truman's "State of the Union" speech on an international level, discussed Russian imperialism, and quoted Churchill as saying that "Western forces are outnumbered 10 to 1 in Europe." He stressed the need of preparedness here on the home front, and referred to a pamphlet, "Survival under Atomic Attack," which is being sold by the government for ten cents.

Tea was served by Hostess Mrs. J. H. Drown, assisted by Mrs. William Harris, Mrs. Edith M. Catlin, Mrs. H. P. Underwood and Mrs. P. G. Preble. The sisters, Mrs. William H. Smythe and Mrs. Henry Raymond, poured.

The next meeting of the Carmel Woman's Club will be on Monday, January 15, from 1 to 4 P.M.

NEW OFFICERS of the Del Monte Kennel Club met Tuesday night at the Mission Ranch and discussed their new organizational set-up. Our photographer caught the following during the meeting: (Back Row) Dr. Ralph Weston of Carmel, chairman of the Bench Committee for the forthcoming Dog Show, and Dick Sumner, committee member. (Seated, left to right) Mrs. Thomas, Derek Rayne, secretary Del Monte Kennel Club, Mrs. Elizabeth Boyer, president, and Mrs. John Craige, committee member. SPCA YEARBOOK ISSUED AS NEW DIRECTORS MEET

The new bulletin of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals--their first Year Book--sets forth in interesting fashion the work which the Society is doing to relieve the distress of the county's four-footed residents. Bedeviled as are humans with problems of food and housing shortages, accidents, illness, and just plain desertion by those humans who should be responsible for them, animals can get some help with their problems at the animal shelter, even though its facilities are woefully inadequate. The present buildings, now 22 years old, although much repaired, are still so termite-ridden it is impractical to keep on repairing them, and new quarters are much needed. If every animal-loving and civic-minded citizen in this area were to spare only the $1 a year needed to make him an active member of this organization, strides could be made toward providing a proper solution to a problem which must of necessity be solved by the two-legged friends of those who walk on four.

Much good has been done by the trained veterinarians of the area who have contributed their services completely gratis for charity patients, as well as many supplies. The free clinic established by Dr. Ralph Weston in 1947, as well as a program initiated by him for young people on the care of dogs, cats, and birds, are some of the evidences of the work that is being done--to say nothing of contests of one kind and another organized for the purpose of making young people more conscious of their responsibility for their own pets, and for the possible stray with which they may come in, contact.

At the recent members' meeting of the Monterey County SPCA, on Tuesday, January 9, at the court room of the county building, 559 Pacific Street, Monterey, the following new members were elected to the board of directors: Countess Claude Kinnoull, Carmel; Mr. George Simpson, Pacific Grove; Mrs. Mort Henderson, Monterey, and Mr. Ted Decker, Carmel. The election was very close, requiring a run-off vote between Admiral Green and Ted Decker. In the absence of President D. T. MacDougal, Vice-president King Mederos, presided.

ONCE AGAIN Carmel was invaded by movie stars, directors, camera-men and equipment as scenes for another movie were shot here. Top picture shows the company on location at the Highlands Inn. Center, seen in front of the Pine Inn, are David Niven, one of the stars of the picture, "The Lady Says No;" Director Frank Ross, and James Wong Howe, five times an Oscar winner and director of photography. Bottom picture shows the stars of the movie, David Niven and Joan Caulfield.

MUSICAL ART CLUB

After the dawn of the New Year officers of the Musical Art Club were invited to a tea, on Sunday afternoon, January 7, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Partridge of Pacific Grove, at which time plans and programs for the coming year were discussed.

The object of the club is to encourage a unity of purpose among musicians, to stimulate public interest in them and to promote interest in all worthy musical activities on the Monterey Peninsula. The membership of the club has grown to such proportions this year that attendance must now be limited to members only. The dues are very nominal, and new members will be welcomed.

Officers for the coming year are R. H. Partridge, president; Robert Forbes, first vice president; Mrs. Carl Neutzel, second vice president and program chairman; Mrs. J. M. Klenke, treasurer; Colonel Schneeberger, recording secretary; Miss Elizabeth Crofton, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Ed. Graham, publicity. Many interesting programs are planned for this year. It is felt that every amateur is a potential professional and that there is an unlimited fund of talent in this area. If you are interested in the activities of the club, or wish to become a member, telephone 7-4390 or 7-3972.

MRS. WHITNEY ENTERTAINS

The beautifully decorated home of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Whitney was the setting for a cocktail and dinner party given last Tuesday evening.

Among the guests assembled were the Mesdames Ruth Cox, Loretta Kelly, Crystal Ross, Mona Lynch, Marge Humbert, Eleanor Armstrong, Lillian Pulliam, Ione Kames, Judy Phillips, Ila Grimshaw, Dorothy Henry, Martha Fraser, Viola Bruce, Jean Duvall, and the Misses Lillian Kroll, Viola Henderson, Marian Erdman, Beth Ingels, Margaret Kenpen and Bee Mouser.

GIRL SCOUTS NEED PIANO AND STOVE

The Carmel Girl Scout House is slowly but surely taking on a new look. To date a new asphalt tile floor has been put in the upstairs room, the lower floor has been sanded and waxed, and roof repairs are now in progress. The Carmel District Board of Directors is in charge of the renovation.

The Carmel Girl Scouts are very much in need of a good piano and fairly modern gas range to help dress up their Scout House, and are willing to pay a reasonable price for them. Anyone wishing to assist in the project by offering a piano or stove for sale, is asked to contact Mrs. Lloyd Miller, 7-7709, or Mrs. Julian von Meier, 7-4043, or address P.O. Box 2089.

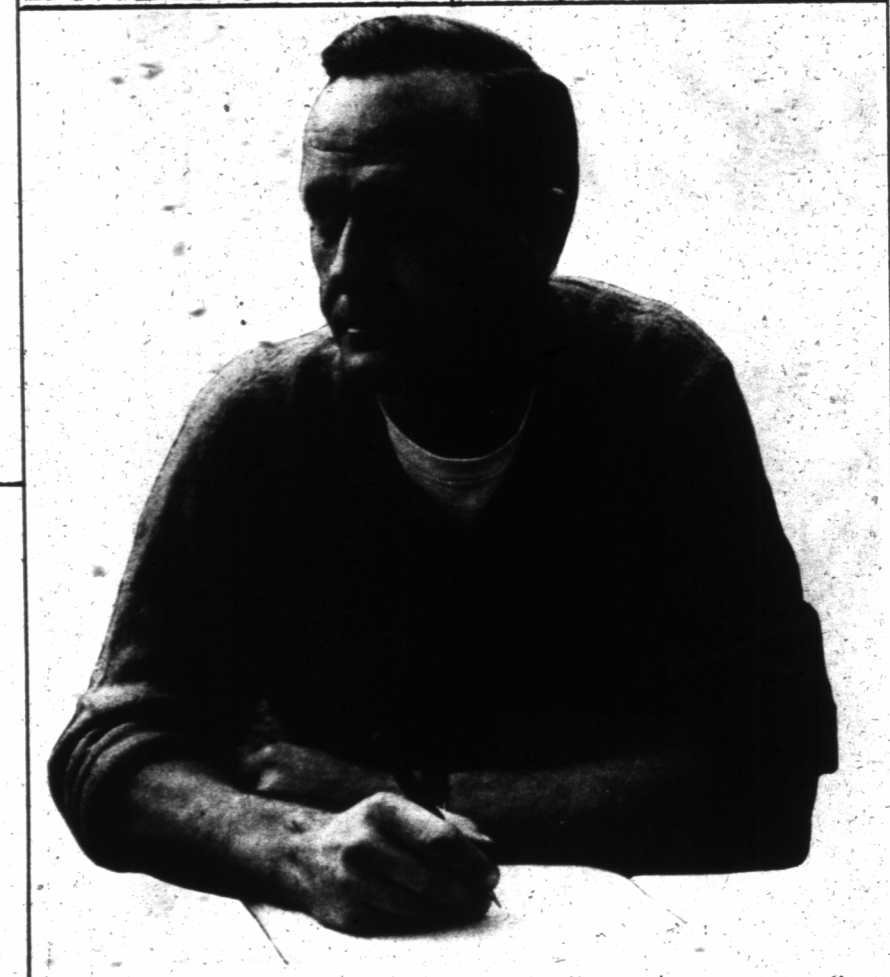
ANSWER TO THIS WEEK'S WHO IS IT?

In spite of the fact that our this week's "Who Is It?", Mr. Harrison Godwin, is owner of one of Carmel's most popular and attractive hotels, that is not the only interest Mr. Godwin has. He is and always has been since young manhood an interest-follower, and has the courage of his interest convictions. In spite of early experience in as widely diversified fields as the ice cream business and wheat ranching, he began his own individual "row ploughing" by drawing cartoons for the Los Angeles Examiner. "Although never a student, I liked fooling around with drawing, so, before I finished high school, I told my mother I was through with school and was going to be a cartoonist. However, I soon saw that that meant being a slave to a drawing board so I quit that and became a commercial artist on my own in San Francisco, drawing and publishing historical maps."

Then real estate beckoned. Selling for Del Monte Properties was followed by reorganization work with L. B. Keplinger for the Trans-American Corporation, until the lure of Carmel again brought him back to the Peninsula, this time as sales manager for Del Monte Properties, for whom he is still Carmel representative, with offices both at the Hill Gate and Pine Inn.

All during these years that interest-following urge had taken Mr. Godwin into several sports at which he became more than proficient, for he played professional baseball with the Western Canadian League, became north-California champion in badminton, as well as president of the California Badminton Association, and later, while chairman of the sports committee of the Junior Chamber of Commerce promoted the first San Francisco National Open Golf Match Play championship. This golf interest has persisted, for, together with Bing Crosby, he won the Swallows Tournament at Cypress Point, and later won it individually. Two years ago he placed second in the Bing Crosby Pro-Amateur Tournament with pro John Bamum. He and Bing are good friends as well as golf buddies, so it isn't surprising that during the famous Crosby Tournament days golf and Hollywood celebrities will be swinging in and out of the doors of Pine Inn, Mr. Godwin's most recent "interest." When he bought the hotel in 1941 it was completely remodelled, redecorated, and twelve new shops added, not the least of which was Gourmet.

Mr. Godwin lives at The Inn, together with his wife, their daughter Sheila, aged twelve and a half, David, who has recently been home on an eight-day leave from Camp Brooks in San Antonio, and Bill, a student at Monterey Peninsula College, who has just been sworn into the Air Force. Before Bill goes into training his father expects to take him on an extended trip East. "I decided he'd better have a look at what he'll be fighting for."



HOWARD RIGSBY, Carmel, whose first book, "Murder for the Holidays," published by Morrow and Co., is a native of the Monterey Peninsula. A professional writer for years, he has specialized in short stories, which have appeared in Colliers, Saturday Evening Post and American Magazine, as well as other national publications. Mr. Rigsby, who recently returned from a two-year stay in Mexico with his family, makes his home at Eighth and Monte Verde. Photograph by STEVE CROUCH.

Programs and social activities are on the schedule for the third Thursday, with Mrs. D. M. Kerr in charge. The fourth Thursday has been set aside for relief work, of which Miss Alice McClure is chairman, and for committee meetings.

Words of the Wise

It is a mortifying truth and ought to teach the wisest of us humility, that many of the most valuable discoveries have been the result of chance, rather than of contemplation, and of accident, rather than of design. —(Colton)

Odd Fact

Students at Radcliffe have found a new way to work their way through college. They are paid for "couple sitting" with classmates who have dates in the bachelor quarters of Harvard College Graduate School because Harvard regulations decree that a girl may not be present in a man's room after 8 P.M. unless accompanied by another girl.

CARMEL VALLEY hold your hats...here it goes again. Detours are being built to take care of traffic while construction work is in progress on the stretch of the Carmel Valley road from Highway One to the Farm Center. The above photograph, taken last Tuesday, shows where the second detour will return to the main road near Luis Wolter's Market and next to Canada de La Secunda. This second detour starts at the entrance to the C. V. quarry. The first detour on the road will be down the San Carlos Road and across the field. It is expected that construction crews and equipment will be on the road and starting work next week. Completion may be anticipated by June or July. POLAROID One-Minute Photograph.
